Take It To The Track.

The '97 PPG World Series opens with a roar at the Marlboro Grand Prix of Miami, March 2, 1997. Marlboro drivers Al Unser Jr. and Paul Tracy will take on

Take It On The Town.

There's even more action off the track. Come to a Marlboro Racing Bar Night and test your driving skill in a custom-built race car simulator. Top scorers win Marlboro

GET YOUR TICKETS HERE

Here's how you and a friend can go to the race for free:
Be one of the first 3,000 Team Members to call the Marlboro Racing Hotline on Saturday February 15, and win 2 free tickets to race weekend.
Starting at 9:00 a.m. Eastern Time, Saturday February 15, call 1-800-97 RACING (1-800-977-2246). Follow the directions given by the automated system. You'll be asked to enter the Team Membership number on your Card. If you don't have your Card, enter the number displayed above your name on the back of the booklet. The first 3,000 callers get 2 free tickets to the race weekend, Saturday and Sunday, March 1-2, 1997. The system will tell you if you've won tickets. If you're a winner, you'll receive a voucher by mail before the race. Then just take the voucher and your card to the track to pick up your tickets. You must call to win tickets.
